“From the Well”

This American and Celtic Folk group derives its unique sound from hammer dulcimers and the strong vocals provided by all five members of the group. Bill Stine centers the band in well-conceived medleys and compositions as familiar as those from Turlough O'Carolan, and as fresh and new as those from Scottish-born Dougie MacLean. Besides boasting twin hammer dulcimers, the band wields violin, viola, cello, assorted whistles, guitar, and frame drums. Craig Zumbrun prefers songs with a Scottish heritage, and Bill's daughter, Sarah, yields a fine soprano that is often paired in shifting descants with Erin Flynn's voice. While Bill and Craig have played together for the past 12 years, Erin & Sarah bring youth, academics and refreshing energy to the group, driving the band into constantly new territory.

“Eaken Piano Trio”

Grammy nominated recording artists, The Eaken Trio marks it's 23rd successful season of critically acclaimed concert appearances across the United States, Europe and Canada. Unanimously noted for their enthusiastic performances and innovative audience building residencies, the ensemble has numerous commercial recordings under both the Naxos and Catalpa Classics labels, and is heard regularly on classical music radio including National Public Radio's All Things Considered and Performance Today. Come enjoy the melodic sounds of John Eaken on the Violin, Gloria Whitney on the Piano and Andrew Rammon playing Cello. The Eaken Trio is proud of their community outreach programs that have helped to raise the awareness of the homeless problems in America and have generated tens of thousands of dollars to support organizations that help the homeless and homeless animals.

Harpist Rebecca Kauffman, and Mary Hannigan, flutist, join together in perfect harmony to bring you a presentation of their considerable talent. Both women are long time members of the Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra. Ms. Kauffman currently teaches in the Conestoga Valley School District and holds concerts locally and in other states. She also performs with the Reading Symphony Orchestra and the Lancaster and York Symphonies. Ms. Hannigan is on the music faculty of Dickinson College and has also taught at Susquehanna, Bucknell and Wilkes Universities, and Colorado College. Ms. Hannigan performs throughout the United States, including notable performances at Market Square Summerfest in Harrisburg with the Ying Quartet, the national convention of the Music Teacher's National Association, and the McGraw-Hill Young Artist's Showcase for radio WQXR in New York City.

"Messiah Percussion Ensemble"

Back again by popular demand, Charlie Zahm is one of the most popular soloists at Celtic music festivals, Scottish Games and maritime music events anywhere east of the Mississippi. With a baritone voice some have described as "coming along once in a generation," Charlie has become one of the most successful performers on the Celtic festival circuit, weaving magical moments of Scottish history for the listener and viewer, with passion for the performance and a chosen repertoire pleasing to all members of the family. A master of the guitar as well, Charlie brings an authentic love and respect for the music he sings---and with dashes of humor and a light in his eyes, he will draw you into the stories of his songs!

Charlie has recently released two new CD's for 2008: The Immortal Memory: A Tribute to Scottish Poet Robert Burns: As dramatic narration moves you through the stirring poems and songs of the famed bard, you too will be caught up in the great Burns experience that has enchanted the world for over 200 years; and Recent Journeys, his third all-original CD.

Our sincere thanks to the Highland United Presbyterian Church on Church Rd. just off Red Hill Road in Newport, the site of all of the concerts in the recital series. Artistic creativity and personal expression are gifts to be celebrated and shared. We invite your participation in our celebration and sharing of music.

The Eastern Perry County Recital Series concerts are supported in part by the Perry County Council of the Arts; by generous contributions from patrons of the arts, and through contributions by discerning concert attendees like yourself.

Free-will offerings will be taken up at each concert to help support the costs of producing this series. We sincerely appreciate our patrons' generosity.
