

Savor a bit of History, too

Fetter House

The historic Fetter House, built in 1848, was the family home of the late Lady Marjorie Fetter-Goossens. The beautiful 1924 Steinway grand piano in the Fetter House belonged to her husband, Sir Eugene Goossens, a composer, violin virtuoso and symphony conductor.

Fetter House
102 S. Carlisle St., Landisburg

Sir Gossens' fabulous piano continues to delight music lovers, thanks to the generosity of Lady Goossens and the Historical Society of Perry County.

Landis House

In 2007, the Perry County Council of the Arts inherited Landis House, a 5,000 square-foot mansion, and the numerous artworks and artifacts from the Estate of Mary M. Landis, including a 100-year-old Bechstein piano, restored in part with a generous grant from the McCormick Family Foundation.

Landis House
67 N. Fourth St., Newport

The mission of Landis House is to serve the community as a Creative Commons, offering a contemporary gallery, a concert and recital hall, a venue to display artifacts in the form of a permanent Landis Collection from the life and travels of the Landis Family (in honor of Arthur Clair and Bertha Rippman Landis, the parents of Mary M. Landis), and as a resource promoting community-building programs.

The Board and staff of
Perry County Council of the Arts
would like to extend a special thanks to Dick & Arletta Gregg
for their generous sponsorship

Additional Thanks to:

Our Fall Hosts:

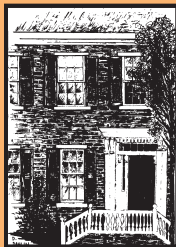

Lane Partner

Sharon & Charlie Campbell

Sunday Arts Hour Volunteer Coordinator:

Linda Hardy

Sunday Arts Hour Historic House Concert Venues

Fetter House
102 S. Carlisle St., Landisburg

Landis House
67 N. Fourth St., Newport

Donations are Greatly Appreciated

PO Box 354 • Newport PA 17074
For directions or more information, Contact Mary Mooney at 717.567.7023 or mary@perrycountyarts.org
www.perrycountyarts.org

Fall 2011

Free Concert Series

October 2nd • November 13th

with a tasty reception
to follow each performance

Sunday Arts Hour

For over 20 years,
the Sunday Arts Hour
has brought beautiful music to our area.
Join the tradition and savor an afternoon of music from some of Central Pennsylvania's leading performers.

sponsored by
Perry County Council of the Arts

This tenor and mezzo-soprano couple will lend their vocal talents to a diverse range of works, from traditional to contemporary.

October 7th, 2011 - 3 pm
Fetter House in Landisburg
 Hosted by Lane Partner

Vocalists

BEVERLY & JONATHAN HUDSON

accompanied by Elena Millar (pianist) present a concert of varied repertoire, ranging from the traditional art songs of Schubert and Faure to more recent English songs of Barber and Vaughn Williams. Featured will be a rare performance of Haydn's "Arianna a Naxos," a concert aria for voice and piano based on a classical myth and composed in 1789. The program will be topped off with a "dessert" section to include popular works from opera and musical theater, including arias from La Boheme and Carmen. Beverly and Jonathan met and trained at the Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University and are former members of the choruses of both the Baltimore Opera Company and the Washington Concert Opera. In addition, Beverly, Jonathan and Elena have all performed with Capitol Opera of Harrisburg. We hope you will join us for a wonderful afternoon of beautiful vocal music!

Steve is a founder and member of the Music Committee of the Central PA Friends of Jazz - 30 years of bringing great local and international jazz musicians to Central PA.

November 13th, 2011 - 3 pm *
Landis House in Newport
 Hosted by Sharon and Charlie Campbell

Jazz Pianist

STEVE RUDOLPH

Steve Rudolph's inspiring career as a jazz pianist, composer, arranger, and educator has made him a prominent player in the development of the thriving jazz scene in Central Pennsylvania. Jazz Improv magazine states, "Rudolph is a savvy, swinging, glimmering heavyweight...simply outstanding." The winner of Jazziz Magazine Piano Competition at the Seven Springs Jazz Festival in 2000, he was also the recipient of two Jazz Composition Fellowships from the PA Council on the Arts, and has toured extensively in the United States and abroad. PCCA was lucky enough to host Mr. Rudolph at Fetter House a few years back, and is elated to welcome him again for Sunday Arts Hour. Come hear him tickle the ivories of our Bechstein grand piano at Landis House on November 13th. Steve will be joined by bassist Steve Meashey and drummer Joe Hunt, who are also featured on the new Steve Rudolph Trio CD "LIVE".

* This year, the November concert has been moved to the second Sunday of November to accommodate the PCCA Annual Members Meeting and Dinner. For more information or to make a reservation for the Annual Dinner, please visit www.perrycountyarts.org, or call PCCA offices at 717.567.7023

Spring Fling with the Sunday Arts Hour

A preview of the Spring 2012 Sunday Arts Hour concerts

Violinist

JOANNA MARIE FRANKEL

March 4th, 2012 - 3 pm
Fetter House in Landisburg, PA

Hailed by The Washington Post as "an uncommonly fine young violinist," and praised for her "palpable singing tone and aesthetic intelligence" (The New York Sun, New York City), violinist Joanna Marie Frankel has consistently shared her unique imagination before many audiences.

Celebrating their 25th year THE EAKEN PIANO TRIO

April 1st, 2012 - 3 pm
Landis House in Newport, PA

* Note that the usual February SAH concert has been moved to April to avoid the winter snows.

Grammy-nominated recording artists, the Eaken Trio consists of Violinist John Eaken, Pianist Gloria Whitney, and Celloist Andrew Rammon. Unanimously noted for their enthusiastic performances and innovative audience building.

Good Music is Assured! See you there.

Please see the PCCA website or local newspapers closer to the performance date(s) for complete information.