2020 Artisan Marketplace & Tiny Art - IMPORTANT DATES

RSVP your interest by September 1, 2020

ABOUT	Artisan Marketplace is Perry County Council of the Arts' annual display of handcrafted holiday gifts and original artwork that make for one-of-a-kind gift giving! Location: PCCA Gallery, 1 S. Second St., Newport, PA 17074 Free & open to the public during open gallery hours: Wed-Sat, 10-4 This is PCCA Gallery's busiest time of the year, when our customers are looking for unique handcrafted gifts or a special piece of art. Artisan Marketplace generally includes jewelry, pottery, woodworking, sewing, knitting, soaps, candles, photography, paintings and more. We recommend that 2D artists submit smaller, affordable works to increase sales opportunities, and ask that artists avoid submitting works in excess of 16x20. In addition, it is recommended that artists include other offerings alongside of original art, including but not limited to prints, greeting cards, photo gifts, home goods, etc.
Informal Email Jurying with September 1 RSVP	RSVP your interest to participate - email missy@perrycountyarts.org and attach 3 example photos of what you would like to sell in the Artisan Marketplace. Artists will be notified by Sept. 7 whether they are accepted into the marketplace.
