

Calling for Entries to Perry County Council of the Arts'

FRAME OF MIND

APRIL 30 – JUNE 11 PCCA Gallery, 1 S. 2nd St., Newport

ENTRIES DUE: APRIL 11

717.567.7023 | pcca@perrycountyarts.org | perrycountyarts.org

The arts have a powerful way of comforting, helping explore inner worlds and reframing thoughts. Artists are invited to submit inspirational works that explore art as an outlet to support mental health and overall wellbeing.

Entry Specifications

Frame of Mind is open to entries of artwork and handmade items by Central PA artists.

Entries are $10 each; the student rate is $5. Checks should be made payable to PCCA.

There is no cost to participate for Perry County Council of the Arts members.

To become a Perry County Council of the Arts member, please call 717-567-7023 or visit perrycountyarts.org.

Eligibility

- Work must be original in both concept and execution and created by the submitting artist.
 - Hanging entries must be wired and compatible with PCCA Gallery's display system.
 - Framed artwork may not exceed 36" in either direction, unless authorized by the curator.
 - You may enter up to 3 pieces; however, entries are ultimately subject to the curator's decision.
- PCCA may use images from the exhibit for promotional purposes in newspapers and newsletters, on social media and on our website. Full copyright acknowledgement will be given whenever possible.

Entry Materials - Due April 11

Artist bio, artist statement and/or technique, and headshot

Please provide an artist's biography with your artistic background and description of your artistic technique (150 words or less). A digital version is preferred and may be emailed to pcca@perrycountyarts.org. Please include a headshot with your biography.

Completed Entry Form (see reverse)

Artwork Delivery - April 25-28

Artwork (label your artwork on the back with your name and title, and deliver to PCCA Gallery, 1 S. 2nd St., Newport)

Printed Description for Display (optional)

Reclamation & Sales Policy

To help promote artist growth and development, PCCA retains only a 35% commission on works sold through exhibits curated by PCCA. We encourage artists to indicate a sale price (the "sticker price" of the artwork, not what you hope to retain from the sale) on the reverse entry form, along with the corresponding title, medium, and size. Payment for sold items will be included in a check, which will be mailed to the artist. It is encouraged that all work remain on display in the exhibition until the Reclamation Period begins.

Works that are not sold must be reclaimed within a timely fashion. Dates for pickup for Frame of Mind are June 15-18.

PCCA Gallery does not have the facility to store works left behind.
Items left behind after June 18 will be considered abandoned and become property of PCCA.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS ENTRY FORM

Due April 11, 2022. Email to pcca@perrycountyarts.org, mail to Perry County Council of the Arts, PO Box 354, Newport, PA 17074, or deliver to PCCA Gallery during shop hours (Wed-Sat, 10-4).
