ABOUT YOUTH ART DAY

For more than 40 years, Perry County Council of the Arts (PCCA) Youth Art Day has highlighted the literary, visual and performance art endeavors of students across Perry County. Each year, more than 10 percent of the K-12 students participate in Youth Art Day from all four public school districts, as well as private, cyber and home schools.

The primary goal of PCCA's Youth Art Day is to create an atmosphere of constructive encouragement of our students' creative instincts. Literary and visual art entries are evaluated by guest judges to compare proficiency in the art forms learned in the classroom, from private instruction or independently. We display all entries, thus acknowledging the value of creative actions. A secondary goal of Youth Art Day is to enhance the sense of community within Perry County. Volunteers from the community put in hundreds of hours for this event. County art teachers mentor and encourage students to submit art and assist with exhibit setup and teardown. Generations of families attend, and even preschool siblings benefit from the arts experience. Today you will see others who give Youth Art Day a very human face: greeters at the door, registration table personnel, guest emcees and food providers. They are all volunteering to honor the creativity and artistic expression of our young people and to enhance the experiences they have growing up in Perry County.

Enjoying Youth Art Day?

Consider making a donation to help us continue this fun and enriching event for the Perry County community for many years to come!

HANDS-ON ACTIVITIES TODAY!

GYMNASIUM

Stop by Drop-In Art to create a stunning spring bouquet of Paper Tulips, craft a Doily Sheep Card, and design your very own Egg Carton Bunny Portrait! Thanks to Drop-In Art Coordinator Janice Bailor, our volunteers and Members 1st for helping to bring this opportunity to Youth Art Day and to pre-schools and make & take days throughout the county. Learn more about PCCA's Drop-In Art program at perrycountyarts.org/drop-in-art.

Try your hand at clay! Visit PCCA Board Member and Artist, John Guarnera to see what wheel throwing and hand building are all about. Learn more about our youth art classes, summer art camps, and PCCA supported artist residencies at perrycountyarts.org.

LITERATURE JUDGES

All entries were judged by impartial judges.

Lloyd Sheaffer is a retired English and Humanities instructor, having taught at Cumberland Valley High School for thirty-three years. During his tenure he served at various times as Director of Dramatics and Speech. For seventeen years, he participated in the Scholastic Writing Awards program. Currently he works as a freelance editor and writes a monthly Community Column for pennlive.com / The Patriot-News.

Louise Thomas is a poet and photographer living and working in Central PA. Louise is a past recipient of PCCA's Sophie's Choice awards and her poetry has appeared in several online publications. Besides writing, Louise's visual work is primarily in digital photography, which has earned several awards in juried exhibitions.

$250 BEST IN SHOW AWARD

2025 Winner

VISIT OUR BEST IN SHOW TABLE TO SEE THIS YEAR'S WINNER!

on display in the art exhibition
(gymnasium) with the traveling trophy!

Best in Show is awarded annually to a high school junior or senior visual art participant, as selected by the judges. The traveling trophy is displayed at the winner's school until next year's Youth Art Day!

The Best in Show award is presented in memory of Chris Lyter, a talented Perry County artist, dedicated volunteer and dear friend.

Chris Lyter, a contemporary American artist who played with light through a dynamic use of color, used a combination of smooth, refined brushstrokes and contrasting areas of thick, textured impasto to produce immersive works of art, both in abstract and realistic execution. <https://www.chrislyter.art/>

This award is supported by donations from Jim & June Bricker and Dave & Linda Kutz.

VISUAL ART JUDGES

All entries were judged by out-of-county, impartial judges.

Heather Confer has an Associate degree in fine art photography from Harrisburg Area Community College, a Bachelor's degree in Art Education from Millersville University and a Masters degree from Boston University. Heather has exhibited work in the "Art of the State" show at the Pennsylvania State Museum in Harrisburg and has taught elementary through high school students. She has worked with PCCA as a Youth Art Day judge for nearly a decade. Heather loves to travel, read, and spend time in her garden. Her favorite art mediums are pottery and painting. She is currently exploring mixed media and embroidery techniques as her next artistic adventure.

Rachel Wozniak is an artist and art educator with a BFA in Painting, an Art Education Teaching Certification, and a Master's in Art Education from Edinboro University. She has taught art for seven years in the Mifflin County School District, working with both elementary and middle school students. Rachel specializes in oil painting, collage, and photography, exploring themes of human connection, relationships, and nostalgia. Outside the studio, she enjoys cooking, spending time in nature with her family, and gardening.

PCCA's Executive Director selected a handful of entries for inclusion in an upcoming gallery exhibit.
